

Scotland Bill

Stephen Baker

As an English taxpayer, I would like to see Scotland being given full fiscal autonomy, with full responsibility for welfare, investment responsibility for all sectors of the Scottish economy and tax setting and collection. As a result of that, the Barnett formulae should be scrapped.

These powers should be imposed upon the Scottish Government no later than 3 months following the enactment of the Scottish Bill.