

STATE HOSPITAL WEBSITE

This Privacy Notice describes the information that is collected and recorded by The State Hospital when someone visits our website www.tsh.scot.nhs.uk and how we use it.

The State Hospital uses log files to record IP addresses, browser type, date and time stamp and pages visited. The purpose of the information is for administering the site and it does not link to anything that identifies anybody, however in certain circumstances this information can be considered personal information.

We do not make any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website. If we do want to collect personally identifiable information, we will make it clear that we are doing so and will explain what we intend to do with it.

The State Hospital is a 'Controller' under the General Data Protection Regulation. If you have a Data Protection concern or enquiry, you can contact our Data Protection Officer by writing to the above address, by emailing TSH.DataProtection@nhs.net, or by telephoning 01555 840293.

Third Party Involvement

In common with most websites we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. Information on how Google uses your information is available from: <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/>

Your Privacy Rights

If you want to know more information about your privacy rights, there is extensive information on the ICO.org.uk website.

Making a Complaint

If you wish to complain about how we handle your personal information, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office by visiting ICO.org.uk or by telephoning 0303 123 1113.
